Weekly Mailing

If you would like to be added to our weekly mailing list please provide your email address. We may also email you in the event of a late task change. The mailing gives details of forthcoming CROW tasks and other Econet activities, together with other items in which you may be interested. You will be removed from the mailing list on request.

Email Address:

The information provided here will be held on a password protected computer file. The emergency contact details will be deleted if you do not join a task for approximately 15 months or at your request. Your email address will be deleted if you 'Unsubscribe' from our mailing list.

This document will be destroyed once any information has been transcribed.

Use of information

The emergency contact and medical information will only be used in the event of a medical emergency or similar, e.g. your becoming ill or having an accident during a task. Similarly your address is only intended as 'backup' in such a situation. This information may be passed to the emergency services should the circumstances require.

A printed copy of the emergency contact information (excluding your own address and home telephone number) will be stored in a sealed envelope in the First Aid box and carried on all tasks. (The First Aid box is normally kept at the home of the task leader.)

Publicity

We may take photographs of our tasks including volunteers which may be used on websites, social media, and in other publicity material to promote the group and its activities. By volunteering with the group we will assume we have your permission to use in the manner described photographs in which you are included. Exceptions will be made in the case of children and vulnerable adults.
