

2005.

Minutes of Econet meeting held at 7.30 on Monday 14 March at Prospect Park

Present Dave Kenny, Cav Globe Dave Booth, RBC Philip Allen, Bec & FoMP Alan Stevens. CROW Paul Fincher, CROW Judith Oliver, FOCC John Lepiniere, ROC, Kit Brownlee, RUWG Katrina Pengelly BTCV

Apologies: Steve Ayres, Tina Gower

Minutes of last meeting and matters arising

South East plan: A questionnaire is being sent to all households.

A public meeting is planned for Local residents, Globe and wildlife groups re. S.E Plan and Kennet Park Development by the Prudential. John Lepiniere to contact Mike Cox to ensure all concerned groups are informed. Date 31st March Council Chambers Civic Centre at 7.15

Treasurer Report Current account £271 Deposit £2734.

Philip to complete financial statement for financial year ending end of March.

Alan Stevens agreed to take over in April

All Christmas tree cheques now distributed.

PR leaflet: More amendments were made. Dave Booth to let Judith know cost of printing

Groups:

RUWG are focusing on the Prudential plans with Mike Cox and other groups, the proposals have been delayed {again} to October, until detail is available no action plans can be formulated.

Friends of Clayfield are working towards the Woodlands day and launching a new guide for the site

BeC are meeting regularly with some new members, attendance averaging between 4 and 10

CROW still active, work this month includes Brookfields School wildlife garden and Coley allotments

Friends of McIlroys 3-4 members meeting coppicing and path clearing

Woodlands Day: It was decided to have a further meeting to discuss which groups could be involved doing what on 26 April Prospect Park 7.30 * All welcome

Tools: Tricia is looking after secateurs. John Lepiniere is to buy 3 pairs loppers and a pair of shears

AOB Cav Globe taking part in RESCUE tidying Hills Meadows and Christchurch Meadows. Tilehurst Globe at Blundells Copse

Risk assessment forms to be sent to Paul for downloading by groups. Katrina to send Judith BTCV risk assessment forms.

* Meeting now to be held at BTCV offices in Bridge St Caversham